

Their Smiles Tell Story Of '57 Football Season

Members of the Norristown High School cheerleading squad, who played a big part in helping the Eagles to their first perfect football season in 34 years, provide a final reminder of Thursday night's community testimonial to the gridmen. Pictured front are Nancy Jones, left, and Lynne Thomas. Second row, left to right, are Jeannie Semenuik, Judy Kirchoffer, Sue Lane, Joan Cohen, Nancy Leonard, Judy Pierson and Jacki Maird. Back row, same order, are Nancy Tornetta, Pat Lieder, Bonnie Mann, Carolyn Fridinger, Janet Buck and Pat Rea.

(Times Herald Photo)

Banquet Will Honor Jayvees As Well as N.H.S. Varsity

The boys who took the all-week poundings that Norristown High School's undefeated and untied football team handed out to rival elevens on weekends will share the glory of perfect season this Thursday night.

Members of the N. H. S. junior varsity squad have been invited to 'break bread' with their varsity 'brothers' at the testimonial banquet, scheduled for 6:30 Thursday night in the school cafeteria.

The sponsoring Central Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce feels that the Jayvee gridmen played a tremendous part in the first perfect N. H. S. grid season in 34 years. For efforts expended in that direction, the 'scrubs' will have a share of tomorrow night's spotlight.

Twenty-four varsity players and their manager will be presented with sweaters from testimonial funds. They will be

Continued on Page 3—Column 6

Banquet Will Pave Way for Scoreboard

Through plans set up by the Central Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce's general committee for Thursday night's testimonial, the achievement of perfect season by the 1957 Norristown High football team will be remembered a long time.

In addition to hosting varsity and junior varsity squad members to dinner, and presenting individual varsity players with sweater awards, monies from banquet ticket sales will be earmarked for installation of an electric scoreboard at Roosevelt Field.

Testimonial

Continued from Page 1

white sweaters, blue trim, with blue N and gold star to indicate the undefeated and untied record established. One blue stripe on arm will denote two-year men, and two blue stripes will denote three-year men.

In addition to these awards, the Ray Musselman Memorial Award, given annually by John 'Barney' Marberer in memory of former N H S grid standout Lt Ray Musselman killed in World War II action will be presented to an individual team member.

Likewise the N Club Award for a leading individual of the squad - also an annual presentation - will be made by Lawson S. Earl, faculty manager of athletics and N Club advisor.

Members of the varsity team being saluted Thursday night are:

Captain Robert Eastwood,
Captain-elect, Michael Branca,
Richard Daddona, Charles
Holmes, Phillip Knerr, Eugene
Bishop, Omerod Duckworth,
Robert Melnick, James Shells,
Willie Suber, Roker Adelman,
Joseph Bono, Blaine Lawson,
Stewart Percy, William Glazier,
Robert Hopple, Richard Detwiler,
Frank Bishop, Robert Johnston,
Edmund Lippy, Robert Spence,
Theodore Avery, Robert Lee, Lee
Phillips and Manager Jay Brunner.

Tickets are on sale now, at $5 per ticket, at the following establishments:

Valley Forge Hotel, Peoples National Bank, Montgomery Office of the Philadelphia National Bank, Montgomery County Bank and Trust Co., Bridgeport National Bank, the Chamber of Commerce office, Frey's Sandwich Shop, Star's Restaurant, Chatlin's Dept. Store, B. E. Block and Bros. Dept. Store, Hallman and Radcliffe, Sears, Roebuck and Co., Johnny's Refreshment Parlor, The Brown Jug, Ward's Drug Store, Ziegler's Stationery Store, Norristown High School, Genuardi's Market, The Gilbert Store, The Times Herald, Frank Jones Sporting Goods, Whitey Melloe Sporting Goods, Harry and Bud's, Pagel's Clothing, McDevitt's Drug Store, and Norris Laundry, Logan Square.